

Timeline of Amelia Earhart's Life by Hillary

1908 Amelia saw her first airplane at the Ohio State Fair

1918 She became a nurse's aid at Sqadina Military Hospital in Toronto, Canada

1897

July 24 Amelia Earhart is born in Atchison, Kansas

1908

1916 She entered Ogontz School in Pennsylvania

1918

1919 She enrolled as a premedical student at Columbia University

1920

Amelia's first airplane ride

1921

Amelia took her first flying lesson

1922

Amelia bought her first airplane

1926

Amelia became a social worker at Denison House in Boston

1930

Amelia set the top women's flying speed record, 180 mph

1931

Amelia married George Putnam

1935

Amelia became a career consultant at Purdue University

1937

Amelia attempted her flight around the world/ death

