Guest Presentations

SAC students learned about some different careers and real-world issues with presentations during the month of April. KSNT weatherman Jeremy Goodwin visited and shared information about the upcoming severe weather season and how to stay safe. School Resource Officer Steven Hudson and his colleague Deputy Wells brought in their K-9 friend, Schultz, to share the job duties of a police dog and show a few of his skills and training practices. Both presentations gave students a first-hand account of information, as well as valuable life-long lessons.

2014-2015 SAC/OAC Yearbook

SAC and OAC will again combine their yearbook to include students in grades Pre-K-4. The cost of a yearbook is $15, and will be printed in full color. Ms. Samantha Kennedy and Mrs. Stephanie Ziegler just put the finishing touches on this year's edition, featuring pictures of individual students, classrooms, events, and candid shots of activities that have taken place throughout the year. If you would like to order a yearbook, which will be distributed in the last week of school this year, please send check or cash to the SAC Office.

SAC Talent Show

On Friday, May 1st, 27 SAC students showcased their various talents for other students, staff, and guests. Performances ranged from singing and dancing to telling jokes to playing the piano or drums to basketball, miming and magic. We're proud of our students' courage and impressed with their many skills outside of the classroom.

Pennies for Patients

SAC students and staff finished out their Pennies for Patients campaign earlier this month. We set a school goal of raising $800 to donate to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and we doubled our goal as we donated $1600 to their cause of cancer research. We kept track of donations by class, and Mrs. Gregoire's class earned a pizza party and a gold pennant by donating the most at $312.09. Mrs. Colvin, Mrs. Fawl & Mr. Fawl's classes earned a silver pennant for donating over $200. Mrs. Washington, Mrs. Arb & Mrs. Huizenga's classes earned a bronze pennant for donating over $100. We're very proud of the generosity and giving spirit of our students. We hope this hard work will pay off for many patients.

Poetry Contest Winners

SAC is excited to announce that 148 of our 161 students had poems chosen to be published in the 2015 Young American Poetry Digest. Students submitted several poetry entries into this contest, and we are excited to see so many of their pieces of work chosen to be included in this book. As a joint technology and library activity, students first studied several different types of poetry and then took their try at writing their own. SAC submitted over 500 pieces of student work this year.

Students received their letters from the contest in April. Parents will need to fill out the permission slip form and mail it in before May 8th. Students can then choose to order the book that contains their original work. We're very proud of the hard work and effort of these students.
